REGULATIONS

1.0	Short title, application and commencement.
1.1	Short title: These regulations shall be called as the Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University Post Graduate Studies Regulations – 2021.
1.2	Application: They shall govern the post-graduate studies leading to award of Degree of Master of Veterinary Science/Fisheries Science/M.Tech (Dairy Technology/ Dairy Microbiology) and Doctor of Philosophy in the Faculties of Veterinary, Fisheries and Dairy Science, for the students admitted from the academic year 2021-22 1.3	Commencement: They shall come into force with effect from the academic year 2021-2022 in case of Faculties of Veterinary/ Dairy / Fishery Sciences.
2.0	DEFINITIONS
	In these regulations, unless the context other-wise requires; 2.1	Academic Year means an academic year of the University which Shall be normally from July to June of the following calendar otherwise required under special conditions. The academic year consists of two semesters 2.2	Course means a unit of instruction or segment of subject matter (as specified in the course catalogue) to be covered in a semester, having aspecific number, title and credits.

2.3	Credit hour, semester credit or credit means each credit hour representing one hour lecture or two to three hours of laboratory or field practicals each week in a semester.
2.4	Grade point (GP) of a course means the value obtained by dividing the percentage of marks earned in a course by 10 and the Grade Point is expressed on a 10 point scale up to second decimal place.
2.5	Credit point of a course means the Grade point multiplied by the number of credits of the course, expressed and rounded off to second decimal place.
2.6	Grade Point Average (GPA) means the quotient of the total credit points obtained by a student in various courses at the end of each semester divided by the total credit hours taken by the student in that semester. The grading is done on a 10 point scale and the GPA has to be corrected to second decimal place.
2.7	Overall Grade Point Average (OGPA) means the quotient of cumulative credit point obtained by a student in all the courses taken by the student from the beginning of the first semester of the degree course divided by the total credit hours of all the courses which he/she had completed up to the end of a specified semester from the first semester and it determines the overall performance of a student in all the courses taken during the period covering more than a semester. The OGPA has to be corrected to second decimal place.
2.8	Semester means an academic term consisting of 110 instructional days Including quizzes midterm examinations and excluding semester final theory examinations.

6.1	Advisory Committee
	6.1.1 Masters Programme Student advisory committee shall have minimum 3 members (2 from major subject including Chairperson and one from minor subjects) but not exceeding 4 in all including extra members, if any, to be constituted before end of the 1 st Semester.
	6.1.2 Ph.D Programme
	i) Minimum 4 members including Chairperson (2 from major subject and one each from minor and supporting subjects) but not exceeding 5 in all including extra members, if any, to be constituted before completion of the 1st Semester.

ii) An advisor from the major field (Major Advisor) shall be assigned to each PG student by the concerned Head of the Department in consultation with the University Head of the Department. In addition, there shall also be an Advisory Committee for each student which shall be appointed by the Dean of the Faculty on the recommendation of the advisor through the Head of the Department. Proposals for the formation of the Student's Advisory Committee in accordance with the Form- I along with Form 1B shall be submitted to the Faculty Dean before completion of 1st Semester.

iii) The criteria for allotment of major advisor shall be based on seniority and on rotation among the accredited teachers. The criteria for members of the advisory committee from the same department shall be based on seniority and rotation.

iv) Equal opportunities shall be given to scientists working in research/other stations in allotment of major advisor. If a student is allotted a topic of research to be conducted in a research station, the major advisor shall be necessarily from that research station provided an accredited scientist is available in the concerned discipline.

NOTE: To give equal opportunity to all the teaching staff in the University irrespective of the place of work, the University Heads and Heads of departments should see that while allocating Ph D students to teachers, accredited teachers /scientists working in other institutions of the University from same discipline are to betaken into consideration and not to restrict to institute / region- wise / zone-wise. Further, if a teacher has already guided two Ph D students or two Ph D students are on hand it is necessary that the new Ph D students shall be allotted to the other accredited teachers from same discipline based on seniority, either working in the same or the other institutions of the University.

v) The University Head and concerned Head of the Department shall take into consideration seniority and rationality and furnish relevant information in Form 1B and submit the same to university along with form -1. The Faculty Dean may modify the proposals so as to rationalize the allotment of major advisor/advisory committee with information furnished in form 1-B.
The University Officers and Associate Deans shall not be proposed to be on Advisory committee of PG and Ph.D students either as Chairman or member programme of studies (in accordance with the Proforma prescribed) shall be submitted by the end of the first semester.

vi) In case of sponsored project work, the Advisory Committee shall include two internal members and one accredited external member fromthe industry where the student takes up project work. The name ofexternal member (representative of industrial unit) shall be submitted along with the synopsis/project proposal at the end of $2^{ ext{nd}}$ / 3 rd semester for Masters and Ph.D programmes, respectively.
vii) The Student's Advisory Committee shall guide the student in the choice of courses in the major and minor field, in the selection of research problem for thesis and in all other matters relating to student's academic and research activities.

6.1.3 Additional Members in the Advisory Committee

- a) The members of the Advisory committee may be restricted to the limits prescribed in the regulations (6.1). If more members are required, approval of Faculty Dean may be obtained by giving proper justification. The Heads of Departments shall submit PG 1 form limiting the advisory committee members as per the above regulations and furnish justification, if any additional member is proposed without which PG form 1 will not be approved. If justified, Dean of Faculty may approve the same.
- b) The Heads of the departments and university Heads of the departments should ensure that equal opportunities are given to teachers of that discipline working in the department and also in all other institutions of university. The Heads of the departments are responsible for overall monitoring of teaching and research activities of department including PG programmes. However the chairperson/Major Advisor is responsible for the research work of PG student.
- If any candidate is allotted to research station (including in-service) c) for thesis work, major advisor may be allotted from research station. In advisory committee of PG student, Scientists other from organizations may be limited to only one person. The Scientists (Asst. Professors), Senior Scientists (Associate Professors) and Principal Scientists (Professors) from ICAR/other National Institutes and other organizations may be included as Co- Chairperson / Minor Guides in the Advisory Committee of PG students provided they satisfy accreditation criteria of the university and without any financial commitment to the university. 	Department shall recommend to the Dean of the Faculty for suitably reconstituting the Advisory Committee of the candidate.
	v. Whenever, the chairperson of the Advisory Committee is transferred or is away from the student for longer period, he/she should inform the concerned Head of the Department (before leaving the Head Quarters) about the feasibility and willingness to guide the student effectively from the new location, so that Head of the Department could recommend changes in the Advisory Committee, if needed.
	b) Whenever a member of the student's Advisory Committee is away from duty for more than three months, or is transferred from the campus in which the student is located, or leaves the University, the Head of the Department shall recommend to the Dean of the Faculty to substitute the member of the Student's Advisory Committee. Such substitute arrangement shall be made immediately and the new member shall continue even after the return of the original member. No last minute substitution in the Advisory committee of a student shall be made for conducting examination, except in special cases and with the prior

No	te: Failure to register courses/research during consecutive semesters sha	ll be deemed as discontinuation.
d.	Courses proposed to be offered: All the Heads of the Departments have to prepare a list of courses proposed to be offered during a particular semester and communicate to other Heads of Departments and Associate Dean at least 15 days in advance of the commencement of the concerned semester so as to avoid last minute inconvenience to students.
e.	Reports of the courses handled: A Report duly indicating the courses offered, no. of classes held and dates of examination etc., are to be sent by Head of departments to the Associate Dean who will send a consolidated list to the Faculty Dean (PG-92) at the end of each semester.
f	Audit courses: With the consent of the Head of the Department and the Chairperson of the Student's Advisory Committee, students enrolled for Ph.D Degree programme may audit courses not included in their regular programmes. It is not essential to register for such courses but permission shall be obtained from the teacher who offers the courses. Auditing a course shall not entitle a student to earn credit for the course.

	g	Seminar : i. A student of Mast	er's Degree Programme shal	l be required to give at

i.	If a P.G. student fails to complete the graduation requirements within the maximum time limit prescribed (*10 semesters for Masters level course and *14 semesters for Ph.D course), his/her admission shall stand cancelled.
ii.	A Post Graduate student may submit thesis after securing 75% attendance in the final semester of study provided the research credits only are registered during that semester and has completed all the courses prescribed for award of degree are successfully by the end of the previous semester.
iii.	The PG students should be on the rolls of the University duly paying the fee till the time of thesis submission. PG students who fail to submit thesis after completing the residential requirement and research work, shall pay the 'Registration Fee' and one time 'Late Fee for Thesis' of Rs.2000/- and register for 'thesis writing' without any credits during subsequent semester. The student may submit thesis as soon as it is ready without waiting for completion of 75% attendance.
iv.	If Ph.D thesis is not submitted within three years after the comprehensive examination, the student should appear for a fresh comprehensive examination i	Tempo	rary discontinuation and resumption of studies:

	i.	If a PG student has to discontinue studies temporarily or take long leave, he/she may be permitted by the concerned Associate Dean to do so after completion of two semesters of without insisting for completion of oral comprehensive examination in case of Ph.D Programme. Such temporarily discontinuing Masters/Ph.D students have to execute a bond as annexed. In case of permanent discontinuation the original certificates shall be returned to the candidates only after recovering the entire amount of stipend paid to him/her.
		Temporary discontinued Ph.D students shall be permitted to appear for oral comprehensive examination on being granted leave for the same by concerned in case they are employed along with other continuing students during third semester if they have completed 75% of the course in the both major $&$ minor subjects and obtained an OGPA of 6.5 failing which they shall appear for the same after resuming studies.
	ii.	If after completion of the two semesters a student discontinues and fails to seek approval of the Associate Dean concerned within 30 days of discontinuation due to genuine reasons like serious illness/domestic problems, such student may be accorded permission by the Associate Dean on payment of late fee of Rs.1000/- per month or part thereof, up to 5 months. The student who is permitted to temporarily discontinue studies should necessarily complete all the requirements within the time limit prescribed under regulation 8h. Students who discontinue without the permission of the Associate Dean, shall not be permitted to resume studies. The Associate Dean shall not send proposals for readmission/ resumption of such studies to the university, if the student discontinues studies without permission.

	proper conduct of examinations in all the courses offered in the Department.
9.4	The Head of the Departments shall constantly exercise supervision and control to see that the syllabus listed under each course is adequately covered and assessment of student is done strictly in accordance with the regulations.
9.5	All answer scripts shall be shown to the students by the teachers as soon as evaluation is completed. Final examination answer scripts shall be retained by the Head of the Departments concerned till the end of 10 semesters and 14 semesters in case of Masters and Ph.D respectively.
9.6	Students registering for a particular course shall take all the examinations conducted during the period of the course, viz., First test (Quiz), midterm and final semester examination both in theory and practicals. No condonation for absence shall be given in the case of First test (Quiz) & midterm examination in a course. However re- examination shall be arranged by the concerned teacher for first test (Quiz). But for midsemester re- examination shall be arranged by the concerned teacher with the approvalof Associate Dean in genuine cases based on the recommendation of the Head of the department of concerned subject in which re-examination is sought and a fee of Rs.1000/- per subject shall be collected from candidates who have missed the midterm examinations. This only repeat examination shall be held within two weeks from the date of regular examinations so missed and shall be a common examination for all the students who have missed that midterm examination. The Heads of institutions are authorized to allow scribe for PG students in case of their incapability of using hands due to accident/illness and also in case of dyslexia and also in case of blindness if supported by medical certificate with a condition that scribe should not belong to or should not be qualified in similar course of study.
9.7	If a student absents himself/herself for the semester final examination (Theory/Practical) in a course or courses, zero marks shall be awarded.
	The grade in that course(s) shall be computed on the basis of performance in previous tests/examinations in that course.

- 9.9 A post graduate student getting a grade less than 6.00/10 in any course will be deemed to have failed in that course and that he/she should necessarily secure better grade with 6.00 and above. However, he/she may not be required to study that course by repetition but he/she may appear for all tests and examinations including semester final examination in that course when conducted next according to regular schedule in the concerned department. However all the examinations in the failed course be conducted even though the said course is not offered in the next semester. Whenever re-examination in a course is conducted, the students of other departments who have registered for such course may also be permitted for the examination. Re-examination fee of Rs.1000/- per subject shall be collected from students for conducting all examinations in concerned subject for PG students getting a grade less than 6.00/10. In case of students who have successfully completed all courses except one failed course, the Associate Dean may permit re-examination during final semester (4th semester for PG. students/6th semester for Ph.D students) or any subsequent semester in consultation with the concerned teacher and the Head of the Department.
- 9.10 In case of students referred to in the clause (9.9), the credits of the course(s) shall be counted only once for the graduation requirements and for computing the Overall Grade Point Average (OGPA), the original grade shall be ignored and the grade obtained by the students after taking re-examination/test, in that course(s) shall be taken into account. However, both the grades shall be mentioned in the semester reports and permanent record with a letter 'R' written above the grade which he/she obtained after taking re-examination/test; but till such time, the original grade and credits shall be used to compute OGPA.

9.11	Scrutiny of answer scripts, etc: Heads of Departments have to scrutinize the evaluation, totalling and posting of marks in the Master performance Register. The dates of examination shall be indicated in Master Performance Register. Each course may be evaluated @ 50 marks for each credit (theory/practical) which may finally be increased or reduced to 100 for award of grade.
	The results should be declared before the commencement of next semester.
	In order to enable the students to pay the re-examination fee (PG-16) 9.12	within time, result should be declared before the commencement of next
5.12	semester.
	Re-examination in failed courses: A student who wants to take re-examination in a course in which he/she has failed should submit an application duly paying re-examination fee within 25 days from the commencement of that semester. The student should make a request in PG form 16 to the Associate Dean through the concerned course in- charge, Head of the Department (in which the candidate is admitted) and pay the fee specified. It is the responsibility of the students to ascertain the dates of examination during subsequent semester.

10.0	Attendance
10.1	 i. Ordinarily the student is required to attend all the classes in a course. The minimum attendance required is 75% to be counted separately for theory and practical both at Masters & Ph. D levels. ii. If any student falls short of 75% of attendance, he/she shall not be permitted to appear for semester final examination and no grade be awarded in that course and the fact be recorded in his/her Semester Report/Transcript. When the course is repeated, a letter 'R' be recorded against that course, in his/her semester report/transcript.
	iii. However, on the recommendation of the Associate Dean, absence up to 20% of the total classes (over and above the 25% of absence permissible) can, however, be condoned by the University in case of participation of students in Inter-Collegiate or Inter-University meets, in NCC/NSS/sports and games/Cultural and literary events.
10.2	Not withstanding anything contained in clause (10.1), the minimum limit of attendance prescribed shall be reckoned for theory and practical, separately.
10.3	If a full time student is absent for the registered courses including research credits or falls short of attendance in the registered courses including research credits, he/she should re-register such course/research credits. Note: During the first two semesters of study, PG students shall register a minimum of 8 course credits, maintain prescribed attendance (75%) and OGPA prescribed under relevant regulations, failing which the admission shall stand cancelled.

11.0	Unfair means in examination:
	i. The Associate Dean of the college shall be responsible for dealing with all cases of "Use of unfair means" in the various examinations. The phrase, "Use of Unfair means", includes possession of any information or material by the student, talking to other students, copying from other students or from printed or written materials etc. The invigilator concerned, on finding the use of unfair means by any student may take the answer scripts of the student and the material evidence, if any and the explanation from the student. The student may also be sent out of the examination hall immediately. The invigilator concerned shall report each case of unfair means directly to the Associate Dean with full details of the incident, answer scripts, the available evidence and explanation of the concerned student, if any.
	ii. The Associate Dean, on receipt of the report, may give an opportunity to the concerned student to represent his/her case. Considering all the available evidence, the Associate Dean shall take appropriate action immediately. The penalty shall be as indicated below; (a) A student found using unfair means during First test (Quiz), Midterm conducted for Ph. D students. In order to be eligible to appear for the oral Precomprehensive/qualifying examination, the student should have secured an OGPA of 6.50. As the students are already tested in course examinations, the comprehensive examination should be based on oral examination by an external expert and the evaluation should cover both the research problem and theoretical background to execute the project. This shall assess the aptitude of the student and suitability of the student for the given research topic. The successful completion of comprehensive examination is to obtain the "Satisfactory" remark by the external expert.

	Grading in viva voce Satisfactory (S)/Un satisfactory (US) NOTE : Failed candidates need to take reexamination again as per the existing rules but not earlier than 3 months.

In case of deviations from Regulations or discrepancies in registration, scholastic probation, etc., the Officer In charge Academic matters (PG) shall render suitable advice to the concerned students/teachers immediately in about 2-3 days of registration.
 - PG form 17 is prescribed for monitoring the academic progress of P.G. students which shall be maintained by the department. The Head of the Departments have to record information in separate forms for Master's and Doctorate students each year and preserve the same in the Department for verification by the Faculty Dean during visit to the Department
- 16.2 Submission of Grade Report The teacher-in-charge of a course shall send grade cards (Grade Point Report) of all students to the Head of the Department in which the students are admitted. This will help the Head of the Department in determining whether the students have secured the prescribed OGPA in all the registered courses before permitting next registration for next semester. Besides, the grade report for each course (pertaining to all students who have registered that particular course) shall continue to be sent to the Associate Dean.
- 16.3 Scrutiny of GPA Reports: The Associate Deans have to get the GPA reports of the P.G. students scrutinized and signed by the Officer In charge Academic matters (PG) before they are submitted to the University for approval. To avoid discrepancies/typographical errors etc in the GPA reports, the Associate Deans have to get the copies of typed G.P.A reports verified in the concerned Departments in which the P.G. students are prosecuting studies. After verification at the Department level, the G.P.A. reports may be sent to the University so that errors can be avoided. The G.P.A. reports shall be sent to the University within a month after the completion of the concerned semester.

16.4 Evaluation of Research Credits

i. All the P.G. students who have registered research credits during any semester should furnish the progress of work in the P.G. form No. 11 before last working day of the semester to the Associate Dean through the Advisory Committee and Head of the Department concerned. The Advisory Committee may apportion some of the credits to each of the activities, i.e. planning the study & literature collection, collection of experimental material, conduct of experiment, recording observations, analysis etc and evaluate the progress accordingly. While preparing the GPA report, only the research credits which were satisfactorily completed shall be incorporated and not all the research credits registered. The P.G. students have to reregister the unsatisfactory portion of the research credits during subsequent semesters.

ii.The Major Advisors should inform the Associate Dean in PG-11 whether the progress of research work is satisfactory or not before the GPA report (of the semester during which research credits are registered) is finalized so as to make necessary entries in the GPA reports of the concerned students.

Verification of Course/Research Credits The Heads of Departments have to ensure that the research credits registered are verified with reference to the PG form -11 and correction, if any, shall be made in the "Registration Cards" in the Department and Associate Deans Office at the end of each semester before the G.P.A. reports are prepared and submitted to the University.

16.7 Failure to register courses/research during consecutive semesters shall be deemed as discontinuation.

Tours to Monitor PG Student Research: The tour proposals of the Chairpersons of the Advisory Committee to monitor the progress of student research are to be sent to the authorities who are competent to sanction the other tour programmes of the concerned teacher/scientist. All proposals involving financial commitment should be routed through the concerned Associate Dean/Head of the Office who will indicate the availability of budget provision under the relevant Head of Account. The request of students for certificates of academic status etc to apply for ARS/UGC/CSIR/NET and for forwarding applications for fellowships etc.

	(Through the University) should be routed through concerned college.
	The Heads of the Departments shall keep one copy of PG forms no.4, 5, 7, 9 & thesis in the files of the students concerned so that they can be of use in case of exigencies.
17.0	Payment of TA/DA to external Examiners and Members of the Advisory Committee
	When scientists of other organizations are included in the advisory committee of PG students, the Associate Deans are authorized to pay the TA/DA to the external members of the Advisory Committee of the PG students as per the eligibility as per rates applicable to SVVU teachers.
17.1	Payment of TA/DA to External Examiners: External Examiners from outside the state shall be paid TA/DA at the rates that are applicableto the University teachers/Officials when they perform journeys outside the state.
	They may be requested to travel only by train and limit themselves to II AC.
	However, if necessary proposal for sanction of Air fare may be sentto the University for consideration/approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
17.2	Payment of T.A. to the Major Advisors after Retirement: The Major Advisors of P.G. students will continue to be the Chairperson of the Advisory Committees and can guide the students up to a period of 3 months even after their retirement. In such cases, if the thesis is approved by the External Examiner, the final viva-voce examination has to be conducted by the Major Advisor along with the Advisory Committee Members. The major advisors retired from the service are eligible to receive T.A & D.A as per their status at the time of retirement for conducting Final Viva-voce examination of P.G. students but not to the other members of Advisory Committee.
18.0	Master`s Degree Thesis 18.1	i. A student shall submit the thesis for Master's Degree after he/she has completed his/her Course work requirement, the required number of research credits and has passed the qualifying examination successfully. The thesis shall be typewritten and temporarily bound as specified and submitted in duplicate along with a "no dues certificate" and a certificate in the prescribed form by the Advisor. The students shall submit thesis only after a thesis seminar and one research paper must have been submitted for publication in a peer reviewed journal. In PG. thesis, students must demonstrate familiarity with the tools of research, scholasticality in their major field and ability to present the results of their investigation effectively.

	ii. A postgraduate student may submit thesis after securing 75% attendance in the final semester of study provided that research credits only are registered during that semester and that all the courses prescribed for the award of degree are successfully completed by the end of the previous semester.
10.2	i. After approval by the Advisory Committee, the thesis submitted by 18.2	the student shall be sent to an external examiner for evaluation who shall be required to send a detailed report on the thesis preferably within three weeks to the Faculty Dean. In case the external examiner recommends acceptance of the thesis, the report will be forwarded to the Chairperson of the student's Advisory Committee who shall arrange for the conduct of final Viva Voce by the advisory committee. The Head of the Department shall also be a co-opted member of the final Vivavoce examination committee, even if he is not a member of the student's Advisory Committee for the purpose of conducting the thesis final Viva Voce examination. The Advisory Committee while conducting this examination, shall take into account, the remarks of the external examiner and may suggest changes if any to be made in the thesis. A certificate regarding performance of the candidate in the final viva-voce examination on the thesis in the form prescribed, duly signed by all the members of the committee, shall be forwarded to the Faculty Dean by the Chairperson of the student's Advisory Committee through the Head of the Department. After the certificate is sent, the thesis shall be bound as specified after effecting changes if any suggested by the Advisory Committee and it shall be submitted by the student in quadruplicate to the Chairperson of the student's Advisory Committee. Unless final thesis copies are bound by the student concerned and handed over to the Chairperson of the student's Advisory Committee, his/her final result shall not be declared.

ii.	Six copies of thesis abstracts of about 150-200 words shall be submitted (2 copies for the Department, 1 for the Associate Dean's office and three for the University) along with bound copy certificate (PG form 9). The PG students should submit two CDs of thesis (one each to Library and Head of the Department) along with bound copies of thesis and antiplagiarism certificate.
iii.	If a student is not successful in the final Viva Voce examination, he/she shall be examined again after a period of three months.
	There shall be no re-examination in final viva-voce for the third time and a student who fails for a second time shall not continue as student in the University
iv.	In case the external examiner suggests major modifications to be made before acceptance, the thesis shall be forwarded to another examiner for evaluation.
v.	A candidate shall not be permitted to submit his/her thesis for the degree on more than two occasions and if the thesis is not approved on the second occasion, the candidate shall not be awarded the degree.
vi.	If the student who has been directed to resubmit the thesis after carrying out the corrections indicated by the external examiner, does not do so within six months from the date of issue of orders by the University, his/her admission shall be deemed to have been cancelled.
vii.	PG student should appear for the final thesis viva-voce examination and submit a certificate of having submitted bound copies of thesis within a maximum period of six months from the date of issue of orders by the University, failing which the admission shall be deemed to have been cancelled.
	19

19.0	Ph.D. Degree Thesis
19.1	A student shall submit thesis for Ph.D degree after he/she has completed his/her course work requirements and the required number of research credits and has passed the qualifying examination successfully. The thesis shall be submitted after thesis seminar and one research paper must have been accepted/published in a peer reviewed journal / or one patent filed out of thesis work. The thesis should be typewritten and temporarily bound and submitted in triplicate.
19.2	The thesis for Ph.D shall indicate that the candidate possesses the ability and imagination necessary to do independent constructive thinking and it shall be of the nature of definite contribution to the subject and the results and the conclusions presented shall be of sufficient importance to merit publication. The thesis shall be on a topic falling within the field of the major subject and shall be the result of the student's own work. A certificate to this effect duly endorsed by the Chairperson of the Advisory Committee shall accompany the thesis.
19.3	i. The viva voce examination may cover the field of study (research). Every candidate shall defend the thesis submitted by him/her at the examination.
	ii. The thesis shall be typewritten and temporarily bound as specified and submitted in quadruplicate along with a 'No Dues Certificate' and a certificate in the prescribed proforma by the Advisor. The thesis submitted for the Ph.D degree shall be sent for evaluation to two external examiners from outside the university will be selected by the Dean of Faculty from the panel of the examiners (PG form 10). In case both the examiners recommend acceptance of the thesis, the final viva voce shall be held by the student's Advisory Committee with the participation of one of the two external examiners appointed for the evaluation of the thesis. If for any reason both the examiners express their inability to participate in the conduct of the thesis final viva voce examination, after sending the thesis examination reports, the Faculty Dean is authorized to appoint an alternate examiner from the panel of examiners, to conduct the final viva voce examination based on the earlier thesis evaluation reports received from the originally appointed two examiners. The Head of the Department, if he/she is not already a member of the Advisory Committee, shall act as a member of the examination committee for the final viva voce examination.

	iii. Six copies of thesis abstracts of about 300 words shall be submitted (2 copies for the Department, 1 copy for the Associate Dean's office and 3 copies for the University) along with bound copy certificate (PG form 9). The student should submit two CDs of thesis (one each to library and Head of the Department) along with bound copies of thesis and antiplagiarism certificate.
19.4	In case both the examiners do not recommend acceptance of the thesis, then the thesis shall not be considered for the award of the degree. In case of only one unfavourable report, the thesis shall be referred to the third examiner from outside the university. If the third examiner recommends the thesis for its acceptance, recommendation may be accepted, if not, the thesis shall not be considered for the award of the degree.
19.5	i. When the thesis is not accepted for award of the degree, a candidate may be permitted to continue the work, re-write the thesis and submit once again after a period of at least six months.
	After the student's thesis for the Ph.D degree is evaluated as indicated above and if recommended for its acceptance, the thesis shall be finally accepted for the award only after the student satisfactorily completes final viva-voce examination.
	ii. A failure at the second attempt shall debar a candidate from any further opportunity to submit thesis.
	iii. If the student who has been directed to resubmit the thesis after carrying out the corrections indicated by the external examiner,

	does not do so within six months from the date of issue of orders by the University, his/her admission shall be deemed to have been cancelled.
	iv. PG student should appear for the final thesis viva-voce examination and submit a certificate of having submitted bound
	copies of thesis within a maximum period of six months from the date of issue of orders by the University, failing which the admission shall be deemed to have been cancelled.
	v. If the external examiner recommends resubmission of thesis after 6 months, the candidates should resubmit thesis within six months thereafter i.e. between 6 months and 1 year from the date of issue of orders by the University 19.6	The recommendations of the examination committee shall be forwarded to the Faculty Dean by the Chairperson, through the Head of the Department in the prescribed form which shall be signed by all members of the committee. If a student fails in the final viva-voce examination, he/she shall be examined again after a period of six months. There shall be no re-examination in final viva-voce for the third time and a student who fails for a second time shall not continue as a student in the University.
19.7	Whenever any material from the thesis is published, a footnote shall always be given saying that the work is part of thesis that has been submitted to the PG degree of "Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University", Tirupati.
19.8	Preparation of Thesis
	i. In order to avoid grammatical/spelling mistakes, typographical errors, citation defects in the thesis, the members of the Advisory Committee shall read the thesis carefully before it is submitted to the University.
	ii. A column shall be inserted for Signature, Name and Designation of the External Examiner who conducts final viva-voce examination in the Certificate of Advisory committee of Ph.D students.
	iii. The date of final viva-voce examination shall be taken into consideration and said month shall be indicated on cover page and same date (final viva-voce date) shall be indicated in certificates of all copies by replacing the pages of first one (PG) or two (Ph.D) copies submitted for external evaluation.

	iv.	ID Numbers of PG and Ph.D students shall be indicated on cover page and certificate inside of the thesis.
19.9	Thesis	Submission
	i.	Time Period : After receiving the thesis at the university, about 1 to 3 months time period is required for receiving the evaluation report from the experts for Masters and Ph.D thesis, respectively.
		More time may be needed if the examiner is preoccupied with other work. Hence, students are requested not to pressurise the authorities for pursuing, to receive the report earlier.
	ii.	Maintenance of work book: In order to make PG /Ph.D students pay more attention to the thesis work, they may be advised to record the work done during each week in a work book. The work done should be equivalent to research credits registered during that semester (i.e., assuming that for each credit, the duration of Practical shall be about 2-3 hours, a student registering 15 research credits may have to devote a minimum of 30 hours for research work during that week). The work turned out by the student may be regularly monitored by the Chairperson and evaluated by the Advisory Committee at the end of each semester and reported to the Associate Dean in PG form-11 for incorporation in GPA reports.
	iii.	Presenting Seminar before Thesis submission: In order to minimize mistakes and improve quality of thesis, Masters and Ph.D students shall present thesis work in a form of Seminar, prior to thesis submission, in the presence the Advisory Committee, Head of the Department, University Head of the Department & other staff members and students.
	iv.	-
	10.	Delay in thesis submission: PG students may be permitted to join jobs after completing residential requirement, all courses and research but only thesis writing remains incomplete. Such students should be on the rolls of the University by paying the requisite fee till thesis submission. If thesis is not submitted, after completion of all research work, in order to be on the roll of the university student should pay registration fee and late fee for thesis.

- v. Degree Completion time requirements: The 5 Academic years (10 Semesters) for Master's Programme and 7 Academic years (14 Semesters) for Doctorate Programme are taken in account for reckoning the maximum time-limit to complete requirements.
- vi. Extension of Time for Submission of Thesis: The facility of extension beyond the prescribed time-limit is not available to Masters level students. Hence, they should necessarily submit theses within 5 academic years and 7 academic years from the date of admission for P. G and Ph. D respectively. Chairpersons/Head of Departments/Associate Deans shall not forward any request for any extension of time.
- vii. Reckoning the maximum time-limit: The following dates shall be considered for reckoning the maximum time-limit to complete graduation requirement (5 academic years for Masters Degree and 7 academic years for Ph.D). The date of thesis submission to the Head of the Department shall be considered for reckoning the maximum time-limit. If any student has joined late (II list/III list), the date of his/her admission may considered as joining date. The student should be in constant touch with the concerned authorities, ascertain dates and complete the work within the stipulated time failing which the admission shall stand cancelled. Those Ph.D students who are employed and seek extension should be continuously on leave till thesis submission and should not join duty during semester break/holidays.
- viii. Copying of thesis: Copying of thesis/research work of others amounts to malpractice/fraud. As per PG regulation 24.2, if the result of candidate is vitiated by malpractice or fraud or improper conduct, the Vice-Chancellor has powers, at any time notwithstanding the second of distance	loont: figsta to	ann a - 1 -	-h c notwithstanding the award of diploma/certificate, to cancel the 25.0. Guidelines to prevent unethical practices in publication of articles, etc.

To prevent unethical practices by unauthorizedly circulating the articles/manuals etc. prepared by the faculty and changing the order of priority in the authorship of research publications, the following guidelines are issued for strict adherence by students and Teachers, while preparing the research articles, etc. for publication or their subsequent use.

- i) For all the research papers prepared on the basis of student research, the authorship should be in the order of student, Chairperson, Co-chairperson and members of advisory committee who have put in considerable efforts in the research work. It is a mandate to publish the research article with affiliation cited as "Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University"
- ii) In respect of papers prepared on the basis of student research work conducted at research station, the authorship may be in the order of the quantum of contribution made by each research worker.
- iii) The first author should certify that due weightage was given to all those who contributed for the research work and also clearly indicate the source of material for the research article/publication i.e student research/scheme work etc. and the period of conduct of such research work. If any part/whole of the article/paper/manual of others is used by the students/staff, acknowledgement should invariably be made with regard to its original author to give a kind of gratification.
- iv) All the research papers (along with one extra copy) should be routed through the Head of the Department / Research Station / Scheme where the work was carried out. The Heads of Research Stations/Departments shall maintain a record of all extra copies so received. The Heads of the Departments/Research Stations shall forward the articles to the authorities, after recording the following details in a "Register of Publications" shall be shown to the superior officers during their visit/office inspection.

1. Date of Dispatch 2. Title of the article / Bulletin

3. Names of Authors 4. Source of material for publications

NOTE: All the authors are equally responsible to prevent plagiarism and ensure that similarity level beyond 10% does not occur in the proposed publication before submitting to the publication

- i. The proposal to start a new PG course shall be sent by the concerned Head of the Department through the University Head and Associate Dean to the University in the prescribed proforma (PG Form 19).
- ii. The proposal for starting new PG Programmes shall be sent only if at least two accredited Teachers are on rolls in that subject in case of Masters Programme and two accredited Teachers out of which one should be at least in Associate Professor cadre in case of Ph.D programme. Same principle shall also be applicable in case of allotment of seats for admission on year to year basis
- iii. A Committee consisting of Dean of the concerned faculty, University Head of the concerned/related department and one more member from outside the university nominated by the Vice-chancellor shall visit the departments and examine the proposals and submit recommendations which shall visit the department and examine the proposals and submit recommendations which shall be placed before the Faculty Board and Academic Council for approval.
- iv. After approval of Academic Council, the proposal for starting new PG programme shall be placed before the Finance committee (if financial commitment is involved) and the Board of Management for approval.
- v. If the Academic Council and Board of Management approves the starting of new PG programme with additional staff and huge amount of funds, the programme shall be started only after obtaining the sanction of state Government.
- vi. If posts are to be redeployed, such posts need to be identified by the concerned Faculty Deans/Directors. New programmes involving new posts may be started after filling up of at least 50% of the posts.

- vii. The teacher identified/redeployed to run the programme shall prepare the syllabus/courses and do the needful for creating infrastructure facilities like laboratories, field facilities, etc.
- viii. If new posts and large amounts of funds are required, the proposal/request shall be sent to the Government / Funding agencies.
- ix. If the Academic Council approves the starting of the New PG Programme without any additional staff and budget, the programme can be started immediately if it is extension of an existing programme to a new campus.
- x. In case of new programmes, the syllabus shall be referred to 2 or 3 outside experts and after incorporation of suggestions of the experts, the courses/syllabus shall be placed before the Faculty Board and Academic Council. If the programme has to be started with additional staff and infrastructure facilities, the syllabus shall be put up to Board of Faculty after the required sanctions are received.
- xi. The proposals/issues pertaining new PG courses/Syllabus are referred to experts from outside Universities and hence require about 4 months time. Hence such proposals may be submitted to the Dean of the faculty concerned studies well in advance as and when visualized, even if the date of Faculty Board meeting is not scheduled.

27. Learning through Online optional courses (e-Courses, MOOCS, SWAYAM etc)

- University Head of the Departments shall identify available online courses and a student may select from the listed courses. The interested students mayprovide the details of the on-line courses to the University Heads.
- ii. Common Courses: A Postgraduate student may take up to a maximum of 20% credits in a semester through online learning resources.
- iii. Grade Points: The host institute offering the course does the evaluation and provide marks/grades in the scale of 10.0 or the academic/Exam division shall develop the conversion formula for calculation of GPA and it may do appropriate checks on delivery methods and do additional evaluations, if needed.

28. Teaching assistantship

The fulltime doctoral students of the University with or without fellowship maybe considered for award of Teaching Assistantships in their respective Departments. The Teaching Assistantship shall be offered only to those doctoral students who have successfully finished their course work. Any consideration for award of Teaching Assistantships must have the consent of the major advisor concerned.

Teaching Assistantships shall be awarded on semester to semester basis on the recommendation of a screening/ selection committee comprises of University Head of the department, Head of the department, Associate Dean with approval of Dean facullty. All classes and assignments given to the Teaching Assistants, including tutorials, practicals and evaluation work shall be under the supervision of a faculty member who would have otherwise handled the course/ assignment.

- Each Ph.D. student may be allowed to take a maximum of 16 classes in a month to UG/ Masters students.
- No additional remuneration shall be paid to the students who are awarded ICAR JRF/ SRF.
- At the end of each term, Teaching Assistants shall be given a certificate by the concerned Head of the Department, countersigned by the Associate Deans of the college, specifying the nature and load of assignments completed.
